

comedian cocktails

inspired by local and international performers appearing in the 2008 melbourne international comedy festival

$15.00

new and improved

a new classic based on some classic classics... just like arj barker's latest show.

start the night with a chilled belvedere citrus vodka and watermelon ice crush muddled with sugar, lime and crème de gingerbre served in a rock glass possessed

a creation inspired by much loved comedian frank woodley. one taste and you'll be hooked!

belvedere vodka and chambord infused with bubbles and hints of passionfruit & gomme shaken and served in a flute

earth summit

climate change never tasted so good. try this concoction named in honour of uk environmentally funny man mark watson.

taste the tang of this bombay sapphire and grapefruit martini, shaken and stirred with fresh lime and served chilled adventurous

audacious, daring and risky, the cocktail is everything that young australian comic josh thomas is trying to be in his show, the adventures of josh thomas!

knock your socks off with jose cuervo orange infused tequila, shaken with fresh orange flavours and angus bitters, stirred and served with grand marnier

the o'loughlin

*have a drink with australia's comedic queen, fiona o'loughlin
- well, the cocktail made in her honour at least.*

fresh passionfruit infused vodka martini complimented with splashes of pineapple and cranberry flavours and a hint of alize gold shaken for your enjoyment the westin melbourne is a proud sponsor of the melbourne international comedy festival